Final Details Are In

The final report on this year’s Michigan Christian Convention is now in. The registration desk information indicates that were 265 persons who attended. Attendees came from 28 congregations. Several people registered without giving a church name. There were 11 churches that supported the convention with a $400 contribution (West was one of them).

Five congregations listed attenders in double digit figures. West led them all with 42 registered and 8 that did not. The non-registered included college students and vendor booth display persons. We commend our people for their fine support.

Next year’s convention is scheduled for March 27 and 28 at Great Lakes Christian College campus. It will feature the Bible as the foundation of our entire Christian life.
